COVER STORY

New Art in Our Park

On July 10 at the Community Centre, members and friends of the Quadra Trails Committee gathered for the unveiling of an outdoor sculpture dedicated to past and present trails volunteers, and to Judy Leicester.

Julie Mellanby, an avid trails member who worked with Judy for years, introduced the piece with these words: "This is a beautiful carving, and I want to say that it's not really here as a shrine, it's not really here as a memorial – it's here for us to remember all the trails volunteers over the years who have worked to keep our trails safe and maintained. Judy Leicester was one of them, and she dedicated so much to get us going and to keep us going.... Some people leave us way too soon, and some people leave us way too young, and they're way too loved. This sculpture is to remember Judy Leicester, who was one of those people."

Vinay Chafekar's spectacular carving is made from old growth cedar, and features the tools familiar to all trail workers: backpack, water bottle, maddock, and shovel. Kevin Mackenzie's metal art completes the work with a cedar sapling – a tree that will never be cut down, a fitting symbol for the Trails committee and the network of hiking paths they've created all over the island.

You'll find the sculpture at the start of the Community Centre Trail, just past the baseball diamond, housed under Richard Leicester's Japanese-style roofed pergola.

Real Humans!
No Tricks!

Axe the Hacks

The transit riders have said no to the tax.

They know that their budget is stretched to the max.

Now they'll pay a high price, to the corporate looters.

Just like the beleaguered B.C. Ferry
commuters,

Who were given no vote, no choice
and no say

Their only option was... stay home or pay.

Transportation is really the government's job

But they turned it over to the corporate mob.

The crown corporations just eat up
the cash

While their C.E.O.'s keep hoarding their stash.

Another twelve million down the drain

And our leaders still ride on the gravy train.

Now Minister Stone, he's a high
mucky muck

His job description is... 'just pass
the buck.'

And Premier Clark is not much better,

She thinks she was elected to be a jet setter.

Public transport, is our most essential service.

This government's negligence, is making us nervous.

City councillors and mayors are saying a prayer

Hoping the government will pay
it's fare share.

But Premier Clark does not see the trouble,

She is too wrapped up in her oil and gas bubble.

By the time she starts selling her
L.N.G.

We'll be pounding the sidewalks or drowning at sea.

There's an election due soon, then we have our say.

So let's all get together and send them away.

Ann McLean

Before I get into the business of my report, I would like to express my sincerest condolences to the entire Assu family of Cape Mudge. It came to my attention earlier today that Chief Don Assu has passed on. I have worked with Don on many projects over many years and will miss him. It is hard to put into words how much he has done for his people and this Island and the nation during his career. May he rest in peace.

This has been another very busy reporting period, but since it is still over 30 degrees in my house and late in the evening, I am going to try and keep this as short as possible.

Water usage

I know that as islanders on wells, most of you are aware of the conservation measures that you need to follow year round. Other areas are under severe water restrictions due to the drought-like conditions that we are experiencing with no end in sight.

I would just like to remind everyone to try and conserve even more water than you would normally in your daily usage. We have no idea what our aquifer looks like and since the Provincial Govt. has repeatedly neglected the mapping of aquifers throughout the province, we need to be extra vigilant.

Fire season

As you know, we are in the thick of it. A great deal of my time has been spent in the past weeks lobbying the Province to get all of the resources that we have available to us out there fighting fires. This included the MARS water bomber, based in Sproat Lake within sight of the Dog Mountain fire that burned for days without the Province allowing the MARS to put it out. It has finally been tasked to work in Nelson, but only after a province wide petition and daily media forced the hand of the Minister. The petition gathered over 20,000 signatures in about 3 days! I did many media shows in support of using this resource. I have seen it work in our area and it has put out fires all around us. This is why I was so engaged in the process of making sure that we have all the protection that we can possibly get.

UBCM Executive meeting

I just returned from 4 days of UBCM Executive meetings (I am a Director at Large) in Richmond dealing with many of the issues that effect us all locally, provincially and federally. I am on the Resolutions committee and the Environment committee. We had 164 resolutions from all of the local governments in BC and dealt with each and every one of them along with lengthy staff reports to go with them. I am not allowed to divulge the disposition of each one but I can say that they will be published in the near future online and that we dealt with some issues that you will be pleased to see UBCM taking a stand on. The convention is a week long at the end of September.

SRD Parks Department visit

By the time you read this I will have toured the entire island with some of the representatives of the major groups on the island along with our new Parks Planner, Victoria Smith.

She will be picking up on a lot of the work that was formerly done by Beth Rees, now retired.

We have lots of unfinished business to deal with along with new proposals. More to follow in my next report.

Upcoming

We will be dealing with all of the other issues that I have mentioned recently in other reports, in the next weeks and months. No need to go into them at this point, More information will be coming in and I will pass it along to you as I get it.

So, as I said this is going to be a short report, but I wanted to at least fill you in on a few items.

Feel free to contact me between the hours of 8:30 am and 7:00 pm, Monday through Friday (please, not on weekends, folks!) at 285-3355, or you can fax me at 285-3533 or you can email me anytime at jimabram@xplornet.ca or by mail at Box 278 in the Cove, V0P 1N0... or on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/JimAbram....> If it is important, my cell is 250-830-8005... Lots of choices.

Please do not use my residential phone number for SRD calls. All business calls should be on 285-3355. Many thanks!

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Abram

Seeking DI Back Issues

Here at the Discovery Islander I've of course kept back issues of all editions and have almost all available electronically online.

But we're missing the early editions, more specifically those of the DI's predecessor, the Discovery Advertiser editions 1 to 132.

I'd love to complete the record and add those early editions to my library and ideally have them scanned and digitized. If someone has a set they'd be willing to part with for a good cause could you drop me a line and let me know?

Wildfire Warriors

No citations, ovations, or public parades,

When the smoke clears, our memory fades.

The red shirt brigades melt into the haze.

Engulfed in the forest's merciless blaze.

Bone weary they tread through the black ash of hell.

A flickering spark could sound their death knell.

Smoke fills their lungs in the blistering heat.

Smouldering embers scald their feet.

They fight on the mountains, in canyons and valleys.

To assist their brave efforts the sky bombers rally.

The foot soldiers who fight in the wildfire platoon

March to the beat of a different tune.

Their battle is not a conflict of nations,

Their mission is simply the planet's salvation.

As the wild winds of change lay waste to the land

We owe a great debt to this gallant band.

Hail! to the quiet heroes who battle the flames

They do not seek glory, fortune or fame.

Raking charred roots in carbon clogged smog

Through the devil's terrain they tirelessly slog.

The wildfire warriors, courageous and bold.

Just doing their job... their lives are on hold.

When their sweat has drenched the last dying ember

And a forest is saved.... who will remember?

Quadra Island Outdoor Club Upcoming Events

The summer schedule is available on the web at:

<http://qioutdoorclub.org/trips/trip-schedule/schedule-summer-2015/>

The schedule is still evolving and trip details are usually available about one month prior to departure. There is a lot of variety to our trips in August. Here are the upcoming trips:

5 August, Wednesday - hike to Nuggedzi Lakes and overlooks

10-13 August, Monday to Thursday - multi-day kayak trip around Read Island

18 August, Tuesday - hike to Channel rock and in K'was Park, Cortes

25-27 August, Tuesday to Thursday - camping at Ralph River & hiking to Bedwell Lake

We will make the classic hike to Nuggedzi, through old forest to the Lakes and overlooks. The views are excellent. Hopefully, this trip will include a swim.

We will be circumnavigating Read Island in early August. There are several great camping spots and wonderful scenery throughout.

On August 18th, we will visit Cortes Island for a tour of the 140-acre Channel Rock estate. This beautiful property was home to Gilean Douglas for many years and has wonderful landscapes, gardens and buildings. In the afternoon we will hike at the K'was Park trails near Hague and Gunflint Lakes.

At the end of August, we will have a multi-day trip to Strathcona Park, staying at the Ralph River campground. The main trip will be a day hike to Bedwell Lake, with shorter hikes on the first and last day.

It's important to contact the coordinator in advance of the trips. Longer trips require more advanced planning so get in touch as soon as possible. More information about these trips is available at the link given above for the summer schedule.

Scroll through the schedule to find the trip that interests you and "click for more" to find the details.

Emergency Services

It is dry out there. How dry is revealed by the rainfall figures, kindly supplied by Sharron Hatel, for the first 6 months of 2015 in Heriot Bay

Rainfall:

Month	Actual mm	Yearly average mm
Jan.	141.4	213.5	down 3 inches
Feb.	168.4	156.0	up 1/2 inch
Mar.	159.6	151.5	up 1/4 inch
Apr.	79.4	86.4	down minimally
May	7.0	78.6	down 3 inches
Jun.	37.0	71.8	down 1.5 inches
Total	592.8	757.8	down 6.75 inches

Particularly noticeable are the figures for January and May. Our gardens and wells are telling us that we have a shortage of water. That 30 mm or so of rain we got on July 12 was a help to the gardens but already the mosses in the woods are dry and it is positively crispy on top of rocky outcrops.

Let us keep our island safe and heed the burning restrictions. For further information check www.quadraemergencyprogram.org. We are in this together.

Sarah Boyes - A Way With Signs

Sarah Boyes is a colourful, funny and loving Quadra Islander. In her spare time, she enjoys belly-dancing, choreography, costuming and directing. However, Sarah also relies on her education and experience to continue her successful career as a sign maker and picture and memorabilia framer.

Sarah's upbringing was unquestionably unique. She was born in Manitoba, and her family moved to Germany, where she lived from the ages of two to five. They then relocated to the Edmonton area until she reached the age of eight. At that time, they moved back to Germany until Sarah was thirteen. Eventually, Sarah and her family relocated to Comox.

She attended the University of Victoria, and graduated with a baccalaureate degree in Linguistics and Psychology in 1989.

Following her studies in Victoria, Sarah lived in Comox, then in Oyster River. She moved to Quadra in 1998.

Entering the sign-making business was in part a matter of talent and part kismet. One day in 2004, she wandered into the QI Builders hardware store to apply for a job, but as she meandered about the place, she discovered a thriving little hive of activity informally referred to as "The Sign Shop" which was located in the back of QI Builders.

Instead of selling hammers and plungers, she began working with Rob Simpson, who helped hone her skills in the art and science of sign making. Sarah purchased Waypoint Signs in 2010 and has been in the same location ever since. She is a specialist in cut vinyl signs and has access to quality digital printing.

Sarah is well-known and respected for her ambitious, and always flawless work. Take a tour through the Nuyumbalees Cultural Centre and you will encounter large totem pole prints and other work which was coordinated by Sarah. Look at most of the signs that stand out on the island, and likely you will start to appreciate the knowledge and hard-working ethic of Sarah Boyes.

Sarah is also a local ambassador. She helped to rally the community together to support Sunday Dennis, an admired local woman who was diagnosed with a very aggressive brain tumor. With the support of our community, Sunday received treatment in a cancer treatment trial at UCLA that offered her the best hope for a positive outcome. The "We Love You Sandy Dennis" signs on West Road continue to remind us of Sandy's courageous struggle.

Not surprisingly, this year's drought and extreme fire danger had Sarah working fast and furious to supply warning signs to help ensure that the residents and visitors to our island were safer from the perils of fire.

On behalf of the residents of Quadra Island, I offer Sarah a big "Thank You." Thank you not only for your support of the people of our community, but also for your honesty, hard work, and your desire and willingness to perfect any of your works to satisfy your customers. We are very lucky to have you here.

Theatre Storage?

Theatre Quadra is looking for a space to store and work on our stage sets. We do need heat and electricity, and would like enough room to stack 8 ft. backdrops and a variety of other set pieces. Room to perform a bit of construction and painting would be fantastic.

For example, an outbuilding with a garage door would be ideal.

Any patrons of the arts out there with extra space to spare? Please contact Linda Lolacher at 250-285-2203 or email: theatrequadra@gmail.com

Quadra Island Farmers' Market

Wow, the market has been jam packed the past couple of weeks with numerous new and returning vendors and as always we have managed to find room for everyone.

The variety of vendors has been great and you can find veggies, baking, jewellery, soap, art work, preserves, bedding plants, massages, chocolates, books, and so much more. Come on down and support your local craftsperson/farmer.

Join us Saturdays from 10-2 rain or shine. We are located on the lawn behind the Coastal Community Credit Union and there is market parking off of Green Rd.

Dogs are strongly discouraged at the market but if you must bring your dog please keep them leashed and under control at all times, clean up their messes, and away from the booths.

Gates open at 8am for market vendors on a first come first serve basis. Market tables are a reasonable $5 and $1 for children selling their own products. There is no charge for local community and charitable organizations.

We are always looking for new ideas - feel free to email or facebook us. quadramarket@gmail.com facebook.com/quadramarket

PHILIPPINE CONNECTION'S 21ST ANNUAL GIANT GARAGE SALE

START SAVING NOW! for the Quadra Philippine Connection's 21st annual Giant Garage Sale to be held on September 20th at Quadra Community Centre. Drop-off locations will be announced toward the end of August.

As many of you know, Quadra is now involved in an exciting new poverty alleviating project in the Philippines called "Passing on the Gift for Peace". This is a program for which IAT, our sponsor organization, has received an international award and that that will have far reaching effects. It promotes self sufficiency and economic stability for the tribal people in the Kalinga area of northern Luzon where Quadra has been supporting daycares. This in turn helps to cultivate a spirit of cooperation and unity amongst a tribal people who have had a past history of conflict and violence.

Until about 30 years ago, the Kalinga area of the northern Philippines was isolated and undeveloped. Tribal people lived in a traditional manner where inter-tribal war was the norm. As the Cordillera area, as it is known, had modern ways thrust upon it, its tribal people became more and more marginalized. It has been quite common for villages to starve, go without medicines, education and sanitation. IAT has been making great gains at creating positive change in this regard through their innovative programs, including the Gift for Peace.

During our visit to Tabuk in February, we were able to visit Katau, the village that Quadra will be supporting as our contribution to this project. This community consists of 40 families that relocated from the mountains for economic benefit enabling the men to obtain work on nearby farms. Twenty families in this village will receive 20 carabao to pass on in three years to 20 families of another village that they have had past conflict with. In addition to animal dispersement, training seminars on leadership, savings, animal health management, agro-forestry, health, nutrition and composting will be provided through IAT. This process has already begun. Another part of our support includes sponsoring the education of two young girls from Katau as a way of further contributing to the upliftment of this village. School has resumed in the Philippines as of the beginning of June and the following is a recent letter from Analiza, our new sponsored student!

Dear sponsor, Quadra Island Community,

Hello from your sponsored child here in the Philippines! How are you right now? My family circle and I wish that you are in good health as we are here in Kalinga Province. We also hope your weather is in good condition. Here, we are experiencing a hot temperature because it is summer. When you look around, many people are always carrying their umbrellas and also using a fan just to get air from it. But for me, I just go under the trees to breathe the fresh air and try to stay cool.

Last summer vacation, I helped my parents, especially my mother in doing household chores because I am the eldest among my two siblings. I am the one who washes our clothes, fetches water and cleans the surroundings, especially our little backyard garden. I removed the weeds and also always watered the plants so that the vegetables that my mother planted will easily grow and give fruits. I learned that if you care and love what you are doing, it will make you happy and make your work easier. Sometimes I also carry my youngest brother when my parents are away from us working in the field so that we can have food. So I am learning to love and care for my siblings.

Our school classes started on June 1st. I woke up early in the morning as I usually do to wash the dishes from the night before when my parents served our food. Then I prepared my uniform to use at school. I took a bath and put on my uniform and then went with my parents and said good-bye when I was in our classroom. I was happy from that time to meet new friends and classmates. At first I was shy but realized that there is nothing to do if you are faint hearted. That is why I am learning to play with others even if I don't know them well. My class passed by not looking at the time and that was the first day of school being a grade 3 student.

That is all for now and thank-you so much for your support to me especially in my studies. Wishing you more blessings and good health.

Your sponsored girl, Analiza Macad

Thank-you to Tru Value Heriot Bay for contributing the proceeds from July bottle donations to the Quadra Philippines Connection! Be sure to choose #291 for your Spirit Board points at both Tru Value stores to further contribute to this worthwhile cause!

Seniors Housing News

Following our AGM in June, the Quadra Island Seniors Housing Society is pleased to announce that its 2015-16 Board of Directors are Maureen McDowell, President; Nancy Allwarden, Vice President; Perry Johnston, Treasurer; Trudy Wenngatz, Secretary; Jerry Enns; Trevor Johnston; John Hoole; Betty Doak and Harry Wenngatz.

Our heartfelt thanks go to retiring Directors, Heather Adams and Val Barr. For several years Heather has contributed her business and organizational skills and served as President to help us stay on track while keeping a sense of humour. Val, our 'historian', has helped shepherd the process of building and landscaping all five housing units, acted as Secretary for several years and served on the Joint Housing Committee to plan for future seniors' housing needs. You two are a hard act to follow, but we will do our best!

Our Board continues to work on maintaining the housing units at 709 O'Connor Road, paying down the mortgage and creating a reserve fund for future maintenance. Tenants are pleased with their housing and have developed a productive community garden. Our waiting list is growing also; however the site configuration can accommodate only one more unit, which we expect to build as donations permit. When the Seniors Housing Survey Report and Business Plan are complete, we plan to collaborate with the Joint Housing Committee on the provision of additional, affordable seniors housing options in Q Cove village.

If you would like get on a waiting list to live in one of our current units please call Maureen McDowell at (250) 285-2221 or email her at mcboas@gicable.com for an application form. Our eligibility requirements are: you must be at least 65 years old, or you may be younger with a spouse or partner who is 65 or older; you have been a resident of Quadra for at least 2 years.

Donations are very welcome to help us pay down our mortgage and build the next unit. Quadra Island Seniors Housing Society can issue CRA tax-receipts on request. Please make cheques payable to QISHS, c/o PO Box 535, Quathiaski Cove, BC, V0P1N0.

Seniors Housing's number at both Tru Value stores is 275, if you are deciding which local charity to support. Your store points help pay off our mortgage. As well, we are grateful for all the donations of time, labour and materials from our many volunteers; you help make Quadra a wonderful place for seniors to live.

Home Waters

We decided to spend most of July around Quadra, harvesting the summer bounty and getting “stuff” done. When we got back home and first stepped foot in our house, I just about fell over from how big it seemed inside; it looked so spacious and grandiose that I had to sit down in one of four chairs at one of two tables to take it in (and did I hear an echo?). At first, the novelty of flushing a toilet with the simple push of a lever and turning a tap on with just the twist of a knob, none of that fidgety pumping business, was hilarious and pleasing, part of the joyous ease of home. But soon the novelty wore off and the practical and simple life at sea started a-calling. We were actually only home one night from our southern journey before heading to Read Island for a weekend with some friends (a common passage for us). One night we piled everyone on to Rafiki and flew the spinnaker under the light of a nearly full moon, chasing the waves down a moonlit path. One of the best parts of having a sailboat is sharing it with people, giving folks a unique and truly coastal experience. Our family came down to visit the next weekend, and we took them out on a rather blustery day over to Carrington Bay. On one particularly angular heel, we nearly lost my mother-in-law (not on purpose!), but managed to right in the nick of time and keep everyone aboard.

Our land-home kept us bound in duty for another week - picking berries galore, oh! the suffering! - before we cast our lines again and headed for Toba Inlet. It's a wholly triumphant feeling seeing the passages and channels on the charts come into a vivid and tangible reality. All the little corners and tiny islands, the big reaches and rounded bays that we know from the chart on the wall at home are now images in our minds, filled with details and memories of experience; things the chart doesn't say, like how the water in Toba is practically fresh, and some of those marked creeks are actually waterfalls launching over the bluffs and directly into the sea. I couldn't ask for a better life than this one, with nothing but paradise everywhere I look.

- Elysia Toporowski

Is it Time to Say 'Good Bye' to TimberWest?

In a joint op-ed piece in the Vancouver Sun “Recall TimberWest's Logging Permits” July 20, 2015 representatives from a coalition of environmental NGOs (Sierra Club B.C, Greenpeace & ForestEthics Solutions) outline the egregious logging practices that TimberWest has recently perpetrated along the coast; accelerating their cuts even as a landmark agreement to conserve vast tracts of irreplaceable forest in the Great Bear Rainforest is being finalized.

In the Discovery Islands we are essentially at the southern border of the Great Bear Rainforest and some of TimberWest's over-cutting, as outlined in the Sun op-ed, is taking place right here, on Quadra, Sonora, the other Discovery Islands and neighbouring mainland coast.

So while high-profile NGOs are calling on the Government of BC to revoke the company's cutting rights as a penalty for these infractions, the question has to be asked “What are we going to do about this corporation running amok in our midst?”

With much of Quadra Island's second growth reaching maturity TimberWest are busy cutting trees on our Island like there is no tomorrow. Oh sure there are ‘special’ management guidelines in place that limit the size of individual cutblocks but the truth is that this is starting to look like ‘death by a thousand cuts’ as hundreds of these 5 hectare blocks appear, one after another after another.

Most of Quadra Island is Crown Land. That in theory means it is public land owned by you and me. But TimberWest act as if it's their land to do with what they wish. They contribute nothing to our community of any substance - not so long ago they actually turned down a request for one single tree to be used for one of the Regional District wharf projects - one tree! Despite the millions of dollars worth of timber TimberWest extract from Quadra Island I can't think of a single tangible benefit the community has received in return.

Yes there are a few local jobs but along with those comes TimberWest's notorious reputation for predatory relationships with their sub-contractors. Squeezing smaller businesses for every last dollar, some even into bankruptcy. Any employment TimberWest are responsible for could be easily recreated on better terms by an alternative land and resources management model.

With new ideas circulating about a potential Regional Park also come ideas for community forest projects, to say nothing of First Nations land claims for which TimberWest are racing to ensure amounts to fields of stumps by the time any such deals are made.

Is it time to say goodbye to TimberWest? Is this not a community with a more creative and sustainable vision than simply being a cash cow for a plundering, raw log exporting corporate parasite?

We have some of the most respected people in the coastal forest industry and Government Ministries right here in the community. You have to think that not only are the Discovery Islands geographically situated at the edge of the Great Bear Rainforest but should be at the cutting edge of demonstrating that new paradigm of land management model in practice.

Revoking TimberWest's Tree Farm License on Quadra, and more seriously enforcing its annual allowable cut on the neighbouring islands is a pathway to greater local control and access to our public forest resources. This does not need to be a battle between environmentalists and logging but rather a stage for a new cooperative vision for our community where everyone benefits, not just TimberWest's shareholders whose demand for profit are driving this rapacious company's practices right up to our doorsteps. Who honestly would shed a tear to see them go?
